DEATH OF OUR MOTHER. - In our dast week's lame, we mentioned the fact of the serious Bluess of our mother, and that we had gone, in ubedicuce lo a telegram tu her home near Richmond, Virginia Shocked as we were at this telegram, we were doomed to a greater and more enduring paln by another telegram received while that she was ilend. Yes, the best and dearest mother that ever blessed and waiched over the deathly of a wayward child has been called to her reward and left us a correding surrow for her loss. A lifetime of earnest pirty and sacrifices for others had prepared her for the summons, and she vent bence with but one regret, that of parting from her family whom she laved and was loved by so tenderly and fondly. She is sale now in the Kingdom of Heaven; and it hehouses us, who are left to grieve for her, to initate her bright and loving example and strive to meet her where "the wicked cense from troubling, and the weary are eternally at rest."
